Dear Scholarship Applicant:

Carolina Hoofprints is a local 501c3 nonprofit organization dedicated to providing therapeutic riding opportunities in the Catawba Valley area. One of our projects is Horsefeathers Summer camps open to children and adolescents ages 4 -13 regardless of ability.

Summer Horse Camp Scholarship Competition is an opportunity for deserving horse lovers in the Catawba Valley to attend summer horse camp free of charge. Applicants will be judged by our scholarship committee for level of interest and quality/content of essay.

Applicants should complete the Scholarship form and attach their essay of 100 words if under 10, and 150 or more for older children and adolescents. Essays should be hand written by applicant unless special circumstances dictate the use of computer or dictation. Essays should be applicants own work and will be judged on the basis of content and effort.

Applications are due June 1, 2011. Additional Information is available by calling 828-256-2707.

Good Luck, we look forward to hearing from all you horse lovers in the Catawba Valley!
